Innovative ideas in pest and weed control in field vegetables

Rothamsted Research, Harpenden, UK on 13 April 2011

CONTRIBUTIONS ARE NOW INVITED

This conference has two aims:

1. To update the participants on recent novel approaches to pest and weed control in field vegetables. In particular, with reference to the loss of available pesticides, and market pressures towards reduced pesticide residues and towards organic produce.

2. Look at current relevant studies and new ideas for the future.

Invited speaker: Dr Rosemary Collier (Warwick HRI)

Papers will be published as 1-page Abstracts. A sample can be found on the AAB web site. (see below).

Your abstract, including title, authors name(s) and addresses can be submitted online via our web site, see above. Click on ABSTRACTS in the left-hand column, then the title of the conference. Once you have registered as a user, you can upload your details. Please indicate at the bottom of the abstract page whether your offer is for a platform presentation or a poster. Please ensure that your POP UP BLOCKER is OFF, otherwise your abstract may not upload properly.

Deadline for Call for Papers is 14 January 2011
