Advances in Nematology

at the Linnean Society of London, UK

on 14 December 2010

This conference invites contributions from all areas of nematology. It actively invites students to participate, both in the platform presentations and poster session. A prize is given for the best student oral presentation.

Our invited Speakers are:

Dr Soledad Verdejo Lucas
IRTA, Cabrils, Spain

Dr Tom Moens
University of Ghent, Belgium

Papers will be published as 1-page Abstracts. A sample can be found on the AAB web site. (see below).

Your abstract, including title, authors name(s) and addresses can be submitted either by mailing or faxing the form opposite or send to Rebecca@aab.org.uk, or online via our web site, see below. Click on ABSTRACTS in the left-hand column, then the title of the conference. Once you have registered as a user and received your password, you can upload your details. Please indicate whether your offer is for a poster or platform presentation. Please ensure that your pop blocker is off, or your offer may not upload.

Deadline for call for papers is 30 September 2010
